

Camp Music Leader Responsibilities

Introduction

Music during pioneer times was the heart of activities and gatherings. Music is a vital part of pioneer history and legacy. Wonderful pioneer songs are available for us to learn from and to sing. The Camp Music Leader conducts music at Camp meetings.

Summary of ISDUP Constitution and Bylaws

This is an appointed position.

Responsibilities

1. Obtain Music

- The music is no longer available in CD format. Instead, the monthly songs are available on the website as an audio file for your smart phone or other device. These files are found at: ISDUP.org → Leadership tab → Music.
- The monthly song list as well as the monthly accompanying song overviews are available on the website as a printable file. These are found at: ISDUP.org → Leadership tab → Music.
- Sheet music of the monthly songs as well as all three of the official DUP songs which are to be used at monthly Camp as well as other meetings are online and in downloadable form in the same location on the website.
- Pioneer Songs is for sale at the Pioneer Memorial Museum either by phone at 801-532-6479, ext. 200, in person at 300 N Main, Salt Lake City, UT, or at ISDUP.org → Shop → Order Form. Prices are in US dollars (USD). Shipping is included in the prices.

2. Provide Music

- Conduct the music at monthly Camp meetings.
- Provide copies of song and/or words.
- Provide accompaniment for the monthly song either on the piano or by utilizing the audio file from the website on your smart phone or other device.
- Review the overview of the song provided by ISDUP and use it as an introduction to the Camp prior to singing the outlined song.

3. Resources Found at ISDUP.org

- Audio song files including the monthly songs as well as the three official DUP songs
- Sheet music of songs
- List of songs and historical overviews for each monthly song selection
